

IMMIGRATION SERVICES

BORDERLESS HUMANITY, BOUNDLESS OPPORTUNITY,
EQUAL PARTNERS IN SOCIETY

As part of USCRI's ongoing mission and commitment to protecting and addressing the needs of persons in forced or voluntary migration, USCRI's Headquarters Office opens its doors to help low-income refugees and immigrants in a wide array of family- and humanitarian-based immigration matters. USCRI works to bring hope and opportunity to the lives of refugees and immigrants by defending human rights, promoting self-sufficiency, and forging community partnerships.

Immigration Legal Services Program

USCRI's Immigration Legal Services Program offers low-cost, professional legal representation to low-income refugees and immigrants and their families with family- and humanitarian-based immigration matters before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR), and the Department of State (DOS).

The Legal Services Program offers a variety of legal services, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Naturalization
- Asylum
- Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS)
- Family-Based Immigration Petitions/Applications
- Consular Processing
- Adjustment of Status Applications
- Work Authorization
- Green Card Renewal Applications
- Self-Petitions for Battered Spouses and Children (VAWA)
- Temporary Protected Status (TPS)
- T Visa (victims of human trafficking)
- U Visa (victims of crime)
- Removal of Conditions to Permanent Resident Status
- Removal Proceedings

Consultations are by appointment only. Call to schedule an appointment at 888-872-0546.
