Long-Term Energy Shut-off Prevention

DTE Case Management

1-800-545-8046

Will help reduce unpaid balances by providing a personal payment plan, agency referrals, and follow-up.

To be eligible for enrollment you must have:

- An unpaid balance greater than $300.00
- No record of illegal usage
- A household income at or below 200% of federal income eligibility guidelines.
- Shut-off prevention options:
 - 1- Budget-Wise Counseling:
 - Eligibility: Any customer but must have account in good standing and not currently be enrolled in any other payment plan.
 - Takes an estimate of your total projected energy bill for the year and divides it up into 12 equal monthly payments. Account is reviewed every three months and payments will be adjusted up or down based on actual energy usage.
 - 2- Shut-off Protection Plan:
 - Eligibility: Available for low-income individuals and senior citizens year-round. Requires verification of identity, income, and size of household.
 - Must pay a down payment on owed balance, then remaining overdue balance is divided into equal portions and added to future energy bills.
 - Must make payments ON TIME or service will be disconnected. Will cause current monthly payment to increase while paying off overdue balance.
 - 3- Low-income self-sufficiency plan:
 - Eligibility: Must have income equal to or less than 150% of the Federal Poverty Level guidelines and average level of energy usage per year. Requires verification of identity, income, and size of household.
 - Allows you to make monthly payments that are affordable; energy assistance funds pay the remainder of your bill every month.
 - Must re-enroll every year until you achieve self-sufficiency and are able to pay energy bill without assistance.
