<tr>
<td>What is it?</td>
<td>Parole for translators, interpreters, and other professionals employed directly by or on behalf of the U.S. Government in Afghanistan.</td>
<td>AKA Afghan Parole Parole for evacuees that do not qualify for an SIV or P1/P2/P3 refugee programs, but were at-risk, had ties to family members in the U.S., or had not started SIV or other immigrant status applications. HP is not an immigration status, but permission to be in the U.S. lawfully for two years.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What documents or stamps identify the category?</td>
<td>Stamp on passport or I-94 reading: SPECIAL IMMIGRANT STATUS (SI/SQ) PAROLE Sec 602(8)(1) AAPA / Sec 1059 (a) NDAA 2006 Date________ UScis Officer________ or SQ4/SI4 (principal) SQS/SI5 (family member)</td>
<td>Stamp on passport or I-94 reading either: DT or Operation Allies Refuge / OAR or Operation Allies Welcome / OAW</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>For what benefits are individuals in each category eligible?</td>
<td>SIV holders are eligible for the same benefits as refugees, administered under the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) including the Reception and Placement Program. Additionally, they receive Matching Grant, Preferred Communities, Refugee Cash and Medical Assistance, and Refugee Support Services, as well as access to federal assistance programs like TANF, SNAP, and SSI (if appropriate).</td>
<td>SI/SQ parolees are similarly eligible for the same benefits as refugees, administered under the U.S. Refugee Admissions Program (USRAP) including the Reception and Placement Program. Additionally, they receive Matching Grant, Refugee Cash and Medical Assistance, Preferred Communities, and Refugee Support Services, as well as access to federal assistance programs like TANF, SNAP, and SSI (if appropriate).</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What is the pathway to lawful permanent residency?</td>
<td>Once admitted into the United States, SIV holders will be mailed a Permanent Resident Card (aka Green Card), and after five years of residing in the U.S. are able to apply for U.S. citizenship.</td>
<td>Individuals with SI/SQ parole need to complete the remainder of their SIV application, the last step of which is filing a form I-485 Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status.</td>
