

Join Our Disability 101 Training & Learning Communities!

We're excited to announce the launch of Disability 101: Engaging People with Disabilities & Their Families — a free, 1.5-hour, self-paced online course designed for service providers and partners.

This training offers:

- Practical tools and inclusive approaches
- Real-world insights to foster meaningful engagement
- Strategies to strengthen supports for refugees with disabilities

What's Next?

Following the training, participants will be invited to join Learning Communities that dive deeper into supporting individuals and families with disabilities. These sessions will provide opportunities to share experiences, explore best practices, and collaborate on solutions that strengthen community impact.

Access the Training Here: Engaging People with Disabilities & Their Families: Strategies for Communication and Support | Sonoran Center for Excellence in Disabilities

Requirements: Internet access, audio capability, and a compatible browser (Chrome, Firefox, or Edge recommended). For questions or technical support, contact Renna Ebron at Rebron@refugees.org.

Let's build stronger, more inclusive communities together!
