

VIRTUAL COMMUNITY LEARNING SESSION #1

UNDERSTANDING THE NEEDS OF REFUGEES WITH DISABILITIES

Join us for an interactive virtual session focused on strengthening communication and support strategies for individuals with disabilities and their families. This session will offer practical tools, inclusive approaches, and real-world insights to help service providers foster meaningful engagement and improve support for refugees with disabilities.

These learning communities are part of an autumn/winter training series and networking opportunity.

Date: Wednesday, November 19, 2025

Time: 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Location: Online/Teams

Registration: Click here to register

What You'll Learn Throughout the Sessions:

- Effective communication strategies for engaging individuals with disabilities
- Tools for supporting families navigating complex care systems
- Inclusive practices for service providers, educators, and community leaders
- Resources and networks available through USCRI and partner organizations

Brian Corrigan

Disability Advocate & Care Coordinator
USCRI Cleveland

University of Arizona Sonoran Center for Excellence in Disabilities

University of Arizona Refugee Health Program